Police identify woman injured in West Friendship collision

Howard County police are identifying the driver in a single-vehicle collision that occurred on Route 32 near Burntwoods Road in West Friendship this morning.

Deborah Lynn Wright, 19, of Barnes Road in New Windsor, was transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center and is currently listed in critical condition.

At approximately 4:06 a.m., her white Toyota 4Runner was traveling southbound on Route 32 just before Burntwoods Road when it left the roadway for an unknown reason and rolled multiple times. She was not wearing a seatbelt. The investigation is ongoing.

Route 32 southbound was closed for approximately three hours.
